November 5, 2022

SELECTMEN IN ATTENDANCE

BOS Chairman Christine Joy (CJ), BOS Vice Chairman John Traynor (JT) and Selectman Mark Russo (MR)

PLYMPTON PUBLIC LIBRARY FIRST AND THIRD SATURDAY SPEAKER SERIES PRESENTATION AND DISCUSSION

CJ reviewed the Plympton 2017 Housing Plan. Subjects included defining affordable housing, subsidized housing inventory, low income population, affordable housing goals and strategies, strategies to meet 10% State standard for affordable housing, strategies to insure that new affordable housing is harmonious with the community vision of maintaining the Town's rural character and zoning bylaws, strategies to create affordable housing through adaptive reuse of existing buildings and town owned properties, and strategies to promote diversity of housing options. Questions and discussion followed.

Questions and concerns were raised by audience members concerning the pros/cons of a proposed "Pay As You Throw" program being instituted at the Town Transfer Station. Discussion ensued.

No votes were taken.

Respectfully submitted,
Mark Russo
