

BOARD OF SELECTMEN MINUTES
Open Session
Friday, February 5, 2021
Zoom Video Conferencing

10:00 a.m.

The Board of Selectmen were invited to a Zoom Meeting hosted by Representative Kathleen LaNatra and Senator Michael Brady to make a presentation on the “State of the Town” of Plympton.

In Attendance:

Representative Kathleen LaNatra and Senator Michael Brady as well as Al DeGirolamo, Chief of Staff to Senator Brady, and Christopher Jean, Legislative Aide to Representative LaNatra.

In Attendance Representing Plympton:

Board of Selectmen: Mark E. Russo, John A. Traynor, Jr., and Town Administrator: Elizabeth Dennehy.

The meeting was opened by Representative LaNatra at 10:00 with introductory comments. Subsequently, Plympton Selectman Chair Mark Russo called the Open Session Board of Selectmen meeting to order at 10:05.

The Plympton participants made a presentation to their hosts outlining the issues the town is facing and why the ability to become experts in leveraging grants was critical to Plympton’s continued success. Much discussion took place with both Representative Kathleen LaNatra and Senator Michael Brady offering to follow up and forward information on grant opportunities.

The meeting was terminated at 11:15 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

John Traynor, Clerk
