Mr. Schmid has lived in Plympton for a year and a half, coming from Hull where he had made his home for more than 40 years. The lighted sign at Plympton Gas and Convenience seems to be a little dimmer, but still bright and fuzzy around the numbers. Anderson will write the decision and bring it to the next meeting

Next on the agenda –

The board continued to review the marijuana bylaw proposal compiled by Ann Sobolewski. Ann will have the bylaw ready for the board to send to the selectmen for their approval at our next meeting. Since neither Ann nor Jennifer are able to attend the next regularly scheduled meeting on Feb. 25, it was decided to hold the next meeting March 4 in order to accommodate our travelling members.
