

RECEIVED

12:00pm

Plympton Council on Aging – Minutes, October 10, 2013

Members present: Chris Maiorano, Dot Cushman, Shirley Martin, Sue Walker, Sandra Henry, Evie Hannigan, Trisha Detterman

The Council on Aging met at the Town House on October 10, 2013 at 9:15 am with Chris Maiorano presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Dot Cushman reported that 20 people attended the Senior Club lunch at the Upland Club on October 9.

Grace Barboza will be featured in the Senior Spotlight section of the November Newsletter.

The Plymouth County Triad Safety Luncheon will be held October 11 in Brockton. Board members will meet at the Town House at 11:15 am to carpool to the luncheon.

Three people attended the Social Hour on September 24. Discussion followed about encouraging more people to attend the social hour. The next Social Hour will be October 29.

The Senior Lunch will be held in April at the PHS. April Fleming and Elaine Rouse will chair the event. The menu will consist of soup, sandwich and dessert. Entertainment will be provided by Steve Caddick & Avalon of Seekonk --banjo songs of the 1900's to the 1960's. They have performed at the Middleboro COA for ten years. The cost is $250.

There will be an informational meeting for all town committees with the Board of Selectmen on October 23 at 7:00 pm.

Senior Aide, Trisha Detterman reported that everything is going well. She has a new client. Trisha will be working Saturday, October to bring people to the flu clinic.

There was discussion about having another person to drive ten hours a week as back up to Trisha.

Treasurer's Report: Town $6,022.16; Handy: $3,674.00.

Meeting Adjourned at 10:25 am.

Respectfully submitted

Evelyn Hannigan