"My dust is affected no more,
With sickness or shaken with pain.
The war with my members is o'er,
And never shall vex me again.
To mourn and suffer had been mine,
While bound in a prison of clay.
And greatly for deliverance I pined,
And press'd to the issues of day."

"So Jesus slept, God's dying son,
Pass'd through the grave and blest the dead.
Rest here bless'd saint till from His throne,
The morning break and pierce the shade.
Break from His throne illustrious morn,
Attend, O earth, His sovereign word."
