"Reader, behold this humble stone;
'Tis death's kind warning to prepare.
Thou too must hasten to the tomb,
And mingle with companions there."

BRADFORD R3-P3-S4

In memory of Gideon BRADFORD, who died April 5, 1805, aged 52 years.

"Down the mansions of the silent dead,
Behold the husband, parent, friend is fled.
His generous heart was prompt at pity's call.
He ever felt and prayed and wept for all,
Lending redeeming love, he spent his days,
And his last dying accents uttered praise."
