ZONING BYLAWS - COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

Fall 2021

WHAT IS A COMMERCIAL VEHICLE?

Any truck, including, but not limited to, step vans and cube vans, bus, or a registered motor vehicle, including but not limited to passenger car, pickup truck, or passenger van on which is affixed any writing or logo to designate the business or professional affiliation of said vehicle, or where tools of said business or professional affiliation are visibly stored on the exterior of the vehicle, or a recreational vehicle used in conjunction with a business.

A pickup truck not used for commercial uses and on which there is no writing or logo to designate a business or professional affiliation and which does not have tools visible on the outside shall not be considered a commercial vehicle for purposes of the bylaw.

Where can I find the Bylaws?

The Town of Plympton Bylaws can be found on the Town of Plympton's website under Town Resources, Codified Bylaws - General & Zoning

Commercial vehicle storage

Up to 3 vehicles

Routine garaging or overnight parking of up to three commercial vehicles (vehicles which require commercial registration, even if not currently registered) at your home or place of work is permitted in all four zones in Plympton - Agricultural/Residential, Business, Light Manufacturing, Industrial.

4 to 10 vehicles

Routine garaging or overnight parking of four to ten commercial vehicles require a special permit from the Zoning Board of Appeals in all but the Industrial zone.

More than 10 vehicles

Routine garaging or overnight parking of more than 10 commercial vehicles is prohibited in Agricultural/Residential, Business and the Light Manufacturing zones. You may apply for a special permit from the Zoning Board of Appeals to park more than 10 commercial vehicles in the Industrial zone.

Any zoning bylaw of the Town of Plympton may be enforced through any lawful means in law or in equity, including but not limited to enforcement by criminal indictment or on complaint before the District Court pursuant to MGL c. 40, § 21.

Each day that a violation exists shall constitute a separate offense. A fine of up to $300 per day may be imposed for each offense, unless other provision is expressly made in these bylaws.

The intent of this bylaw is to maintain Plympton's rural character while supporting the needs of our community.

This leaflet contains general information being provided for the convenience of the public. The Town makes no promises or guarantees about the accuracy, currency, completeness or adequacy of the contents of any of these documents, and expressly disclaims liability for errors and omissions in their contents. Pursuant to the Massachusetts General Laws, official printed copies of general and zoning bylaws are maintained in the office of the Town Clerk. The print version of the Zoning Bylaw is the official version and for precise determinations, members of the public are advised to consult the language found in the Zoning Bylaw itself. If any discrepancies exist between the information contained in this leaflet and the Zoning or Municipal Bylaws, the print version of the Zoning or Municipal Bylaws, together with any amendments, shall be considered correct.
