Absent – John Rantuccio of the Plympton Planning Board.

First on the agenda

Allen Adams reported to the board that replacement plantings were in place and he and his group are ready to complete the project. He wanted reassurance that Borrego would pay for the attorney fees as promised. He was so assured.

Next on the agenda

Minutes for the November 20, 2017 meeting were approved as written, motion by Karling, second McClellan. Unanimous.

The Planning Board reconvened

to the Selectmen's meeting room where they reviewed the Housing Production Plan presented by Christine Joy. The 81 page plan, which was developed by the Affordable Housing Production Committee, is a necessary component of the town's ability to seek certain grant funds, and once approved at the state level, to give direction to the town's affordable housing program. The Planning Board voted to approve the plan on a motion by Karling, second by D'Angelo. Vote was unanimous.

The next meeting will be held Monday, January 8, 2018.
Meeting was adjourned at 7 p.m..
