

Plympton Council on Aging Minutes – September 6, 2016

Members Present: Chris Maiorano, Dot Cushman, Sue Walker, Barbara Allsopp, Pat Mustacaros, Jeanne Langley, Evie Hannigan

Attending: Joanne Barrow

The Council on Aging met at the Town on September 6, 2016 at 10:30 am with Chris Maiorano presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted with one correction that the March Against Elder Abuse was held in Plymouth not Brockton.

Pat Mustacaros reported that Old Colony Elder Services meetings will be starting up the end of September.

Senior Aide – Jim Mustacaros praised Jean Langley for her care of a client while waiting for an ambulance to arrive at Woodlands.

Dot Cushman reported that the Senior Club is disbanding.

Chris Maiorano reported on the upcoming Craft Fair which is to be held on September 24 from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm at the Upland Club. Flyers are available for distribution. Notice boards will be placed at certain intersections in town. Dot Cushman arranged for volunteers to bake cookies for the bake sale.

Healthy Harvest was distributed August 29. The MCOA Fall Conference will be held at Seacrest in Falmouth, October 26. No one will be attending this year. TRIAD will sponsor an “Emergency Preparedness” presentation at the Carver Library, September 22, from 2:00 to 3:30 pm.

We are working with the Library for the Apple Crisp Event on October 6 at 1:00 pm. Donations of apple crisp will be appreciated.

Chris has applied for a $600 grant from MCOA to establish a Walking Group. Senior Workoff Applications are available.

Treasurer’s Report: Barbara Allsopp – Handy: $5,274; Town; $5,240.92.

Meeting adjourned at 11:25 am.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyn Hannigan
