

RECEIVED
1:00pm
DEC 27 2016
TOWN CLERK'S OFFICE
PLYMPTON

PLYMPTON COUNCIL ON AGING MINUTES – December 5, 2016

Members Present: Sandy Henry, Pat Mustacaros, Chris Maiorano, Shirley Martin, Dot Cushman, Jean Langley, Barbara Allsopp, Evie Hannigan

Attending: Joanne Barrow, Phyllis Carrasquillo

The Council on Aging met at the Town House on December 5, 2016 at 10:40 am. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Old Colony Elder Services – Pat Mustacaros reported there is still time to donate to Giving Tuesday. OCES has a face book page with information. William James College Interface Services provides mental health services for $12,000 per town. Plympton does not participate in this service.

The Walking Group has begun with Pat Mustacaros and Sandy Henry leading the walkers. They meet at the PHS building at 10:00 am and walk the bog. During the inclement weather they will walk the Kingston Mall.

Woodlands – Jean Langley reports the bed bug issue has been resolved. All is well at Woodlands.

Senior Aide – Jim Mustacaros gave a status report on his clients.

Chris Maiorano met with applicants for the Work off Program which begins in January. The TRIAD holiday luncheon will be held at the Upland Club on December 14. Cost is $7.00 per person. The COA and the Library will be hosting Christmas Carols, Cookies & Cocoa December 20 at the Library at 1:00 pm.

Discussion followed concerning future social events.

Treasurer's Report: Town: $4,340.45; Handy: $4,470.

Meeting Adjourned at 11:45 am.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyn Hannigan