

PLYMPTON BOARD OF SELECTMEN
Open Minutes
November 22, 2010

Attendees: Joseph Freitas, Barry DeCristofano, and John Henry
Meeting called to order at 7:00PM

Mr. Richard Gauley reported to the Selectmen that the Economic Target Area (ETA) will now include the Town of Plympton. Mr. Gauley, Selectmen, and the Old Colony Planning Council worked to accomplish this inclusion. The 8 towns included in the ETA are: Plympton, Bridgewater, East Bridgewater, Halifax, Hanson, Kingston, Pembroke, and Whitman. Mr. Gauley credited Ms. Jill Meyers, Kingston Town Administrator for pursuing the 8 Town ETA. Plympton will now be eligible to participate in a variety of grants and programs. The Industrial Park investors would also benefit for a tax credit.

Mr. DeCristofano reported that the Small Town Road Assistance Program (STRAP) grant is part of the Capitol application filed with the Open Space Committee. He will report back to Board.

Mr. DeCristofano also reported that at present there is no School contract and no meetings scheduled at this time.

The Selectmen discussed the Police Sergeant title. There was discussion regarding the new Sergeant position being part of the Union versus the Chief's direct authority over position. Mr. Freitas will speak with Chief Dillon for more clarification on the Sergeant position and report back to Board.
