Plympton Council on Aging Minutes – May 4, 2015

MAY 28 2015

Members present: Barbara Knox, Chris Maiorano, Pat Mustacaros, Dot Cushman, Shirley Martin, Sue Walker, Evie Hannigan, Sandra Henry

The Council on Aging met at the Town House on May 4, 2015 with Chris Maiorano presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Chris Maiorano introduced Janis Morrison who represents Plympton on the South Shore Community Action Council Board. Janis explained the process for services provided to Plympton residents. There was lively discussion concerning the delivery of those services. Janis suggested that residents should call 508-747-7575 during business hours. If there are problems, the Council on Aging should call Janis Morrison directly at 617-599-4866.

Old Colony Elder Services – Pat Mustacaros - reported that OCES has a program for retired seniors who may wish to volunteer in the towns and cities in Plymouth County. It is known as Mayflower RSVP, Inc. and has over 400 member volunteers.

Meals on Wheels – no change.

Senior Club – Dot Cushman –The senior club will be meeting at the Upland Club in June and actor Richard Clark will perform.

Senior Aide – Jim Mustacaros reported on his clients and everyone is in good spirits.

Chris reported that 31 people attended our Octogenarian Celebration on April 14. A good time was had by all. Also, the Main Street Players cannot attend our event on May 17 at PHS. So we will reschedule it for the fall. The grants from PNG, one for $500 and one for $300, were awarded to the COA. The Council on Aging will get a $25.00 gift card for Lisa B. Johnson.

Treasurer's Report: Town: $2,785.70; Handy: $1,251.00.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted.
