

Plympton Council on Aging Minutes August 13, 2014

Members present: Shirley Martin, Barbara Knox, Sue Walker, Sandy Henry, Evie Hannigan, Jean Langley, Chris Maiorano, Dot Cushman

The Council on Aging met at the Town House on August 13, 2014 at 9:00 AM.

Guest speaker, Christine Uniak, representative of Jack Conway Real Estate, spoke to the board about a division set up to help seniors with estate planning, lawyers, and relocation services.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

It was noted that the Handy person account has $352 left and we will notify the state of the amount left in the account.

Sue Walker has resigned from the Conservation Committee as the COA representative.

Old Colony Elder Services did not meet over the summer. A luncheon will be held on September 18 to celebrate their 40th anniversary at Massasoit Community College. Board members interested in attending should contact Chris.

70 – 80 people attended the Senior Club BBQ at the Upland Club. Other activities will be a covered dish lunch at Woodlands on the second Wednesday in October. Bring your own place setting and covered dish.

Chris Maiorano reported on plans to have the blood pressure clinic and flu clinic moved to Woodlands due to poor participation at the Town House.

Discussion followed about sending out the Newsletter to the senior population. It is a possible project for the work off person. The Senior Work off Program Application will be included with the October issue of the Newsletter.

Chris will present the Council on Aging short term goals and long term goals at the Selectmen's meeting of all Town Boards and Departments scheduled for August 25.

The MCOA Fall Conference will be October 8-10 in Falmouth. Board members interested in attending should contact Chris.

A motion was made and passed to pay MCOA dues of $175.

Sue Walker will be at PHS to distribute Healthy Harvest produce on Monday, August 18.

A motion was made and passed to have the Council Aging Meetings held on the first Wednesday of the month at 10:30 AM. COA office hours will be held on Wednesdays from 10:30 am to 2:30 pm.

Treasurer's Report: Handy person: $4,352; Town: $27,000.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35 am.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyn Hannigan
